

ENGL S-145. Romanticism (CRN: 31573)

William Flesch PhD, Associate Professor of English, Brandeis University

English romanticism sets the tone for most of the English language literature of the past two centuries. In this class we will survey the six great romantic poets--Blake, Wordsworth, Coleridge, Byron, Percy Shelley, and Keats--as well as three novelists who formed or responded to the movement: Austen, Mary Shelley, and Emily Brontë.
